Launch Nutrition Challenges, Seasonal Meal Plans, and Group Nutrition Programs

What This Is

This is your launch playbook. It contains ready-to-use email sequences, social media posts, landing page templates, and announcement frameworks for the three highest-revenue nutrition events you can run: nutrition challenges, seasonal meal plan launches, and group nutrition programs.

Each launch template includes every touchpoint from teaser to close. Customize the details, plug in your pricing, and execute. These templates are designed to generate a burst of new clients or re-engage dormant ones — creating revenue events that complement your steady monthly coaching income.

Launch 1: The Nutrition Challenge

What It Is

A time-bound (usually 21 or 28-day), structured nutrition program that a group of people follows simultaneously. Participants get daily meal plans, group accountability, coaching touchpoints, and a clear outcome goal. Challenges are the single best client acquisition tool in nutrition coaching because they create urgency, community, and visible results.

Challenge Parameters

ParameterRecommendation Duration21 or 28 days (long enough for results, short enough to feel achievable) Group size8-20 participants (enough for community, small enough for personal attention) Price$97-197 per person (perceived as high value relative to ongoing coaching) PlatformPrivate Facebook group, WhatsApp group, or Slack channel for daily interaction GoalSpecific and measurable: "Lose 5-8 lbs," "Hit your protein target every day," "Complete 21 days of meal prep"

Email Sequence: The 21-Day Nutrition Reset Challenge

Email 1: The Announcement (Send 14 days before launch)

Subject: Introducing the 21-Day Nutrition Reset — Are you in?

Hi [Name],

I'm launching something new and I think it might be exactly what you need.

The 21-Day Nutrition Reset Challenge starts [date]. Here's the deal:

For 21 days, you'll follow a customized meal plan built specifically for your goals and preferences. You'll be part of a small group of [X] people going through it together — daily check-ins, shared recipes, group accountability, and direct access to me for any nutrition questions.

What you get:

- ☐ A fully customized 21-day meal plan (built in EvoFit Meals, tailored to your macros)
- ☐ Weekly grocery lists and meal prep guides
- ☐ Daily group check-ins with coaching support
- ☐ A private community of people going through the same thing
- ☐ Before-and-after measurements and progress tracking
- ☐ A personal nutrition strategy session with me at the end

What it costs: $[X] for the full 21 days. Why I'm doing this: I've seen too many people struggle with nutrition alone. This challenge gives you the plan, the coaching, and the community to actually follow through. 21 days is enough time to build habits that stick — and most participants see measurable results by day 14. Spots are limited to [X] people. When they're full, they're full. Launch 2: Seasonal Meal Plan Launch

What It Is

A quarterly promotion tied to a seasonal theme. You launch a new collection of seasonal recipes and meal plans, offered as a special package to new and existing clients. This creates a natural buying event every 3 months and gives dormant clients a reason to re-engage.

Email Sequence: Spring Fresh Start Meal Plan

Email 1: Teaser (Send 7 days before launch)

Subject: Something new is coming next week...

Hi [Name],

Spring is here, and I've been working on something I think you're going to love.

Next [day], I'm launching the Spring Fresh Start Meal Plan — a complete seasonal nutrition program built around fresh spring ingredients, lighter meals, and the energy boost your body is craving after winter.

I'll have the full details for you in a few days. For now, just know: if you've been feeling sluggish, heavy, or stuck in a food rut — this is designed for exactly that.

Stay tuned.

Email 2: The Launch (Send on launch day)

Subject: The Spring Fresh Start Meal Plan is live

Hi [Name],

It's here.

The Spring Fresh Start Meal Plan is a 4-week seasonal nutrition program designed to reset your eating, boost your energy, and get you feeling your best heading into summer.

What you get:

- ☐ 4 weeks of customized meal plans (new plan every week)
- ☐ Built around fresh spring ingredients: asparagus, strawberries, peas, leafy greens, herbs, new potatoes
- ☐ Lighter, faster recipes — 80% of meals take under 25 minutes
- ☐ Weekly grocery lists optimized for seasonal pricing (spring produce is cheap right now)
- ☐ A macro framework calibrated for your goals
- ☐ One nutrition coaching session with me to set your spring targets

Launch 3: Group Nutrition Program

What It Is

An ongoing (usually 8 or 12-week) group nutrition coaching program. Unlike a challenge (which is short and intense), a group program is longer, more structured, and designed for lasting transformation. It combines individual meal plans with group coaching calls, creating a hybrid model that's profitable (you coach multiple people at once) and effective (group accountability works).

Program Parameters

Email Sequence: The 12-Week Nutrition Transformation Program

Email 1: Pre-Launch Interest Builder (Send 21 days before enrollment opens)

Subject: I'm building something for the people who are ready to commit

Hi [Name],

I've been thinking about what separates clients who get life-changing results from those who cycle through short-term diets. The answer is always the same: structure, support, and time.

That's why I'm creating the 12-Week Nutrition Transformation Program — a small-group coaching experience where everything is built for you: your meal plan, your macro strategy, your weekly coaching, and a community of people going through the same transformation at the same time.

This isn't a challenge. It's a complete nutrition overhaul in a supported environment. 12 weeks of personalized plans, weekly group coaching calls, and daily accountability.

I'm opening enrollment on [date] for a maximum of [X] people. If you want to be first to know when spots go live, reply to this email with "I'M IN" and I'll make sure you get early access.

More details coming soon.

Announcement Sequences for Existing Clients

When to Use These

Use announcement sequences when you're launching something new to your existing client base — a new service tier, a seasonal promotion, a group program, or a special offer. Existing clients are your warmest audience and should always hear about launches first.

Sequence 1: New Service Tier Announcement

Message 1 (DM or email):

> YOU
> "Hey [Name], quick heads up — I'm adding a new option to my nutrition services that I think you'll be interested in. [Brief description of new tier/service]. Since you're an existing client, you get first access before I open it up publicly. Want the details?"

Message 2 (if they express interest):

> YOU
> "Here's the full breakdown: [description, pricing, what's included]. For existing clients, I'm offering [special rate / priority enrollment / bonus]. This goes live to the public on [date]. If you want in, just let me know by [date - 2 days]."

Sequence 2: Seasonal Menu Refresh Announcement

Message 1:

> YOU
> "[Name], heads up — I'm refreshing your meal plan with seasonal recipes for [season]. You'll see some new dishes in your next plan. Any specific requests or foods you've been craving? I want to make sure the new rotation hits the mark for you."

Sequence 3: Referral-Driven Launch Announcement

Message 1:

> YOU
> "[Name], I'm launching a new [challenge/program/service] and I want to tell you first. [One sentence about what it is]. I'm also offering a referral bonus: for every person you refer who signs up, you get [incentive]. Know anyone who's been wanting to get their nutrition sorted?"
